

L&T SPOT NEWS

Corporate Communications Department

October 01, 2009

Mr. A.M. Naik Conferred Bharat Shiromani Award

L&T's Chairman and Managing Director, Mr. A.M. Naik was conferred the Bharat Shiromani Award at a glittering ceremony in New Delhi on September 30, 2009. His Excellency the Governor of Orissa, Mr. M.C. Bhandare, handed over the award to Mr. Naik.

The Bharat Shiromani Award was instituted in 1977 to focus public attention on outstanding achievements of people of Indian origin, both resident and non-resident. Awardees are chosen on the basis of competitive merit, high calibre and commitment to national progress and human welfare.

Mr. Naik was honoured with the award for his outstanding contribution to Indian industry.

Mr. A.M. Naik receiving the Bharat Shiromani award from Mr. M.C. Bhandare, the Governor of Orissa.

Former recipients of this award include such illustrious personalities as Mother Teresa, Dalai Lama, Justice P.N. Bhagwati and Mr. Montek Singh Ahluwalia.

D. Morada
Corporate Communications