

L&T SPOT NEWS

Corporate Communications Department

March 30, 2009

CII honours L&T with Corporate Wellness Award

The Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) has conferred upon L&T the Corporate Wellness Award in appreciation of the employee welfare activities of the company and the efforts put in to promote a healthy workforce.

Instituted this year by CII, the Corporate Wellness Award, sponsored by Apollo Hospitals, recognises the efforts put in by organisations to improve employee health and the results achieved.

Mr. K. R. Palta (left), receiving the Corporate Wellness Award from Mr. Omar Abdullah.

The awards were presented at the National Conference and Annual Session 2009 of the CII, in New Delhi on March 26, 2009. Mr. K. R. Palta, Vice President, Corporate Affairs, received the award on behalf of L&T from Mr. Omar Abdullah, Chief Minister of Jammu & Kashmir.

Also present on the occasion were Mr. K. V. Kamath, President, CII, and Mr. Chandrajit Banerjee, Director General, CII.

D. Morada,
Corporate Communications